all the upright in heart shall glory.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Heartland Livestock Auction LLC and its auctioneers act solely as agents, bringing buyers and sellers together. The seller is responsible for all representations, guarantees, warranties, and statements—expressed or implied—concerning the condition, soundness, disposition, health, registration, pedigree, or suitability of each horse.

Heartland Livestock Auction LLC, its owners, employees, representatives, and auctioneers make no guarantees or warranties regarding any horse offered for sale. Buyers are encouraged to carefully inspect each horse and satisfy themselves as to its condition before bidding. Any errors or corrections concerning information printed in this catalog will be announced from the auction block, and all announcements made sale day will take precedence over printed material. Buyers are responsible for paying close attention to all announcements. The sale will be video recorded.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer. If a dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer may reopen the bidding between the parties involved or settle the dispute at the auctioneer's sole discretion. The auctioneer's decision shall be final.

3. All horses are sold "as is" unless a specific guarantee is clearly announced from the auction block at the time of sale. Any guarantee is made solely by the seller. Heartland Livestock Auction LLC is not responsible for enforcing private agreements between buyers and sellers.

4. Title and all risk of loss, injury, sickness, or death pass to the buyer immediately when the auctioneer declares the horse sold. Buyers are responsible for the care, custody, removal, and transportation of their purchases following the sale.

5. All purchases must be paid for in full before horses are removed from the premises. Buyers must obtain a paid receipt or release from the sale office before taking possession of any horse.

6. Anyone attending the sale does so at their own risk. Heartland Livestock Auction LLC, its owners, employees, representatives, consignors, and auctioneers shall not be responsible for accidents, injuries, theft, damage, or loss involving any person, animal, vehicle, trailer, or personal property.

7. By registering to bid, placing a bid, purchasing a horse, or consigning a horse, each person acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agreed to these Terms and Conditions.

72-HOUR SOUNDNESS GUARANTEE

All catalog horses represented and sold as SOUND are guaranteed by the seller for 72 hours following the time of sale.

The guarantee covers observable lameness, serious impairment of eyesight or wind, cribbing or weaving, parrot mouth, and cryptorchidism when such condition was not disclosed prior to sale.

Any defect, condition, vice, maintenance requirement, or unsoundness announced from the auction block or disclosed prior to sale supersedes this guarantee.

The guarantee does not cover temperament, suitability for a particular rider or purpose, level of training, flexion tests, radiographic/X-ray findings, cosmetic blemishes, or injuries or conditions occurring after the horse leaves the sale grounds.

Any claim must be reported to Heartland Livestock Auction within 72 hours of the time of sale. Leland or Arlan will make final decision.

Heartland Livestock Auction acts as an agent between buyer and seller. The 72-hour guarantee is made by the seller and is between buyer and seller.

SHIPPING, BOARDING & HORSE-HANDLING INFORMATION

Shipping is available through Heartland Livestock Auction LLC for $3.25 per loaded mile to surrounding states. Please make shipping arrangements on sale day. Contact the office for an estimate on transportation beyond the surrounding states

All horses must be picked up by 5 o'clock p.m. Monday following the sale unless prior arrangements have been made. Horses remaining after that time will be charged a boarding fee of $10 per day for hay and water.

All riding horses and lead-in horses will be sold with a halter. Heartland Livestock Auction LLC will provide the halters, and an $10 halter fee will be charged to the seller.

IMPORTANT: Please do not remove a halter from any horse unless you own the horse and are preparing to ride or show it.

All riding and lead-in horses will be assigned a pen and must be returned to that same pen after they are sold. For everyone's safety, please make sure your horse is securely tied in its assigned pen at all times unless it is being shown.

This requirement does not apply to loose horses.

Thank you for your cooperation and for helping us provide a safe, organized sale!

YOUTH SHOW HORSE
TJ TOOSLEEPY TO COOK
“Cook” | 2013 AQHA Mare | Approx. 15.3 HH

If you’re looking for a proven show mare with outstanding bloodlines, a winning record, and a fantastic disposition, Cook is one you won’t want to overlook!

Cook is a 2013 AQHA Western Pleasure show mare standing approximately 15.3 HH. She is a daughter of Too Sleepy To Zip, a Congress Champion and AQHA World Show Top 10 horse, and a great-granddaughter of the legendary Zippo Pine Bar, a 7-time Grand Champion and High Point Junior Western Pleasure Stallion.

Beyond her exceptional pedigree, Cook is simply a wonderful mare to be around. She has been successfully shown in Western Pleasure and Ranch Pleasure, where she has continued to win. She is also a Champion in Trail and a Grand Champion Halter Mare.

Cook is ready to head right back into the show pen and has been shown consistently right up until the sale. Like most accomplished show horses, she does require typical show-horse maintenance, but she is experienced, seasoned, and ready to go to work. Cook has also had an off-season where she was used as a broodmare and successfully raised one foal with no complications.

With her exceptional pedigree, proven show record, versatility, and outstanding personality, Cook is a mare that can continue to make her mark in the show ring or become a valuable addition to a serious breeding program. A proven show mare with the looks, pedigree, record, and disposition to back it all up! - 4R Ranch
